“ My mom, Maxine, and Aunt Alice were sisters. I remember my mom piling all of us kids in the old Buick and driving to visit her sister in my younger years. It was always quite an adventure getting all of us together. But I did not get to know Aunt Alice until she came to stay with my mom and help take care of her when she was ill.

Aunt Alice put her own life on hold and dedicated her time caring for my mom for as long as she was needed. Aunt Alice was always cheerful, kind and genuinely cared. Her presence was a gift to the entire family. I regret not seeing her over the years. You always think you have more time. I will try and honor her spirit with grace, gentleness and a sincere caring for others just like she showed me each time I saw her. Please accept my love and my deepest sympathy to all the family for your loss. Cathy (Lottman), Kruse.
