“ Ellie was my aunts sister. I always felt like she was my aunt too. Did her hair for many years and one of my nicest clients ever. Never said a bad word about anyone. Wonderful lady.

“ Oh gosh, way, way. way back in the olden days when we were all just youngsters and Abraham Lincoln was president (LOL) , Terry stayed in an apartment in our basement while he was going to ISU. (We remember you bringing back Pizza on Sunday nights when you came back from home). The entire Field family opened up their hearts and home to all of us, and we will forever be grateful and are happy to have you all in our lives even if there are years that go between friendly visits. I remember the farm house, and staying there on a weekend or two. It was great fun, and tons of laughs. As I look back on the past few years, I have had thoughts of those days, and wonder how you are all doing. 91, wow what a great accomplishment!!! Be at peace knowing she no longer suffers in anyway here on this earth, she is with her love, Tom, and is a beautiful angel getting reacquainted with old friends and making new ones. Bless you all. My thoughts and prayers are with you!!!
