“ Sheffield family lived on short dead end street in North part of Rossville, just down the street from Railroad tracks.....Ray and I played percussion in band and orchestra...Ray was a very talented magical percussionist!

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I only had the opportunity to meet Howie once back in California. He was an amazing uncle though I know for sure from all the memories of their life Pop shared with me. May you Rest In Peace. And for the family prayers of strength and peace during this difficult time. A time to celebrate a wonderful life and the footprint of life he left for us to follow. When you are sad I wish you will also be able to smile from his touch.
Love you all
